New Mexico “stars” to be recognized during 10th Annual Behavioral Health Day at the Legislature

SANTA FE, N.M. – The 10th Annual Behavioral Health Day at the Legislature will be held on Saturday, January 30, 2016 from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. in the Capitol Rotunda. Twenty-six individuals and ten programs from throughout New Mexico will be honored as behavioral health service champions in their respective communities.

These “stars” help countless individuals suffering with mental health, substance use and/or co-occurring conditions and continuously make a positive impact in the lives of many New Mexicans. The purpose of Behavioral Health Day is to recognize and honor these stars who, personally or by service to others, challenge and overcome the adversity of behavioral health conditions and become advocates in their communities by educating others about the hope of recovery.
