SUN Bucks Eligibility
Question	Answer
What are SUN Bucks?	SUN Bucks is a new program available to families that provides access to purchase food during the summer when school-aged children are not in school.
How do I know if my child is eligible?	There are many ways your child can be eligible to get SUN Bucks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your school-aged child received free or reduced meals under the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) or School Breakfast Program (SBP). • Your child’s school reported your child is homeless, a migrant, or in foster care. • Your child received SNAP, Medicaid, or TANF anytime during the school year. • You applied for SUN Bucks and were approved. (See “How do I apply for SUN Bucks?”)
What does school-aged mean for SUN Bucks EBT?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • School-aged means the years when a child is required to attend school, or an equivalent program as defined by State or Tribal law. • In other words, the child must be under 18 by July 1, 2023, and older than age 5 by June 30, 2024. • Children turning 18 during the 2023 – 2024 school year are still eligible.
How will the SUN Bucks EBT benefit be issued?	The SUN Bucks EBT benefit will be deposited onto the child’s SUN Bucks EBT card. The SUN Bucks EBT card will be different than the regular EBT card provided for SNAP. Cards will be automatically mailed starting 08/05/2024 for school year 2023-2024. If multiple children are in the home, the benefits will be deposited onto the card of the oldest school-aged child.

Which schools are participating in the National School Lunch Program?	You can find a list of participating schools on the HCA website here .
