8.291.410.15 RESIDENCE: To meet MAP requirements for eligibility, applicants or recipients must be living in New Mexico on the date of application or final determination of eligibility and have demonstrated an intention to remain in the state.

A. - (2) for no specific purpose with no clear intention of returning;
- (3) applies for financial, food or medical assistance in another state which makes residence in that state a condition of eligibility; or

8.291.410.20 VERIFICATION METHODS: Verification will be obtained through various methods. Not all methods will necessarily be used in each case. This section details the specific types of methods to be used in establishing the applicant or recipient's eligibility.

A. Prior case data not subject to change: Verification of an eligibility factor not subject to change, which previously has been verified and accepted, will not be subject to re-verification. The caseworker shall not ask an applicant or recipient for verification of any eligibility factors which have previously been established through documents in HSD's possession and are not subject to change. Such factors include U.S. citizenship, birth date, relationship and enumeration.

B. Electronic data: Every applicant or recipient shall be informed that the information provided is subject to verification through state, federal and contracted data systems. The caseworker shall not require further verification of such information unless it is disputed by the applicant or recipient, or the information is otherwise questionable as defined in 8.100.130 NMAC.

C. Self-attestation is the information that an applicant or recipient reports on an application and is certifying as true and correct to the best of their knowledge.

D. Documentary evidence is the primary source of verification for information not established in prior case information or electronic source data. Documentary evidence consists of a written confirmation of a household's circumstances. Acceptable verification is not limited to any single type of document. The types of documents which may be accepted as verification are specified under the sections pertaining to verification methods later in this chapter. The caseworker shall provide applicants or recipients with receipts for verification documents provided subsequent to the interview.

E. Collateral contact is defined at 8.100.130 NMAC.

F. Sworn statement is defined at 8.100.130 NMAC.

C. An individual must not be required to provide additional information or documentation unless information needed by the agency HSD in accordance with 42 CFR 435.948, 435.949 or 435.956 cannot be obtained electronically or the information obtained electronically is not reasonably compatible, as provided in the verification plan described in 8.291.410.24 NMAC with information provided by or on behalf of the individual.

(a) A statement which reasonably explains the discrepancy; or

(b) Other information (which may include documentation), provided that documentation from the individual is permitted only to the extent electronic data are not available and establishing a data match would not be effective, considering such factors as the administrative costs associated with establishing and using the data match compared with the administrative costs associated with relying on paper documentation, and the impact on program integrity in terms of the potential for ineligible individuals to be approved as well as for eligible individuals to be denied coverage.

This exception does not apply if documentation is specifically required under title XI or XIX, such as requirements for verifying citizenship and immigration status.

D. HSD may not deny or terminate eligibility or reduce benefits for any individual on the basis of information received in accordance with regulations under 42 CFR 435.940 through 435.960 of this subpart unless HSD has sought additional information from the individual in accordance with Subsection C of 8.291.410.24 NMAC and provided proper notice and hearing rights to the individual.
